Course Content:	In this course, students develop basic spoken interactions on topics related to work, occupations, and everyday life at the A1.2 level. Students describe daily routines and past events using the Perfekt tense. They understand simple job advertisements and occupational texts, request information through telephone conversations, and participate in basic dialogues on shopping and clothing. A communicative approach is adopted throughout the course; active participation is supported through interactive activities and digital tools (Quizizz, Wordwall).
